

RIGHT HERE
right now

- 1 O LORD, you have searched me
and you know me.
 - 2 You know when I sit and when I rise;
you perceive (see) my thoughts from afar.
 - 3 You discern my going out and my lying down;
you are intimately acquainted with all my ways.
(I'm never out of your sight).
 - 4 Before a word is on my tongue
you know it completely, O LORD.
 - 5 and with your powerful arm you protect me from every side.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
too lofty (much) for me to attain.

7 Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?

8 If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

9 If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
if I settle on the far side of the sea,

10 even there your hand will guide me,
your right hand will hold me fast.

11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me
and the light become night around me,"

12 even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day,
for darkness is as light to you.

13 For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.

15 My frame was not hidden from you
when I was made in the secret place.
When I was woven together in the depths of the earth,

16 your eyes saw my unformed body.

All the days ordained for me
were written in your book before one of them came to be.

17 How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

The background of the slide is an abstract composition of various colored rectangular blocks. The top row features a red block on the far left, a yellow block, a light blue block, and another red block on the far right. The bottom row features a yellow block on the far left, a light blue block with a black border, a yellow block, a white block, a red block, and another light blue block with a black border on the far right. The text is centered in a black horizontal band across the middle of the image.

18 Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand.

When I awake,
I am still with you (You are Here with Me).
